

delphia heretofore.
The management of the "Crom-a-Boo" Company, last week at the Park, on Thursday afternoon gave a box party in honor of Gretta Hovenden Halvey, their little star, the youngest child actress, it is claimed, that ever took a speaking part in a play. Miss Gretta is only 6 years and 2 months old at this time. Her friends filled the four lower boxes and were of both sexes and of ages from 3 to 8 years old. Throwing bouquets to their little actress friend seemed to form their chief amusement and to be the best part of the entertainment for them.
