Another Double-Priced Fraud.

T. F. Halvey, a so-called wool merchant at No. 50 North Front street, is another illustration of fraudulent political floppers developed by double-priced news of that sort solicited by reckless party organs.

Mr. Halvey was not a Democrat or Cleveland man when he went to Europe recently; he was a Republican before he sailed; he voted for Blaine in 1884, or professed to have done so, and it requires a severe strain upon courtesy to call him a wool merchant at all.

If Mr. Halvey is disposed to dispute these statements he can be fully convinced of their entire correctness by calling at this office.
